Update on Education Funding through the CARES Act

Governor Noem announced approximately $75 million in grant funding for public and non-public K-12 schools from the Coronavirus Relief Fund (CRF) today. The U.S. Treasury's updated guidance allows direct payments to K-12 schools of up to $500 per elementary and secondary student "such that schools do not need to document the specific use of funds up to that amount." Payments from the Fund can be used to "cover costs associated with providing distance learning (e.g., the cost of laptops to provide to students) or for in-person learning (e.g., the cost of acquiring personal protective equipment for students attending schools in-person or other costs associated with meeting Center for Disease Control guidelines)."

Requirements for CRF apply to schools as well. The payments may only be used to cover costs that:

- 1. Are necessary expenditures incurred due to the public health emergency with respect to the Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19);
- 2. Were not accounted for in the budget most recently approved as of March 27, 2020 (the date of enactment of the CARES Act) for the State of government; and
- 3. Were incurred during the period that begins on March 1, 2020 and ends on December 30, 2020.

The state's 149 public school districts and 47 accredited non-public schools will receive an initial payment based on 90% of their Fall 2019 enrollment. The final payment will be made in early November following the finalization of 2020 enrollments. Details of what each school will receive in their initial payment follow this memo. This information will be posted on the Department of Education's website. http://doe.sd.gov/coronavirus/

South Dakota's tribes received CARES Act funds as well. The U.S. Treasury guidance applies equally to those funds; tribes can elect to support their schools in the same way.

The CRF grants are in addition to the $41 million schools received through the U.S. Department of Education's Elementary & Secondary Emergency Relief (ESSER) Fund. The ESSER grants required public schools to provide equitable services to the non-public schools in their district boundaries. There is not an equitable services requirement with the CRF grants. Both public and non-public schools will receive funding directly from the CRF.

Additional K-12 Supports for COVID-19

In addition to the $75 million in grant funds for K-12 schools, Governor Noem has dedicated CRF dollars for sentinel testing of adult staff in K-12 schools and for Zoom licenses for educators.

COVID-19 Testing

In partnership with the Departments of Health and Education, K-12 schools can elect to participate in sentinel testing through the fall semester. Sentinel testing – or testing asymptomatic individuals – can help monitor the presence of COVID-19 among adult staff.

Sentinel testing helps ensure that new infections are detected promptly, and their contacts traced to contain transmission as early as possible. Participation is voluntary but strongly encouraged as an effective tool to slow the spread of COVID-19.

Sentinel testing involves testing a certain number of asymptomatic individuals each week in order to discover unseen transmission. The SD DOH recommends schools test a total of 2% of individuals who are asymptomatic and apparently well each month.

Schools are working with a local health care provider to collect test specimens and run the labs. Schools will pay the healthcare provider and submit receipts for reimbursement each month.

To date, 63 districts have opted to participate in sentinel testing, representing 36% of K-12 students. 40 schools have opted to not participate. They serve 8% of the state's K-12 students. Others are expected to begin participation in the coming weeks.

More information is available at https://doe.sd.gov/coronavirus/documents/081020-Presentation.pdf.

Zoom Licenses

The Department of Education negotiated a three-year agreement at $7.50 per user annually with Zoom to provide K-12 teachers and school administrators access to the digital communication system. The first year will be funded by the CRF. The Department of Education will support years two and three with available technology funding.
